The Flood That Couldn't Happen

Alma Cox, P.O. Box 235, Fulton, sends me a newspaper tear-sheet that's guaranteed to get the attention of an ex-Pennsylvanian. Her note says: "This came from a friend in Ulster, Pa. Thought maybe you might like to have it."

It's from the Dec. 22 edition of the Towanda (Pa.) Daily Review—an Associated Press roundup of how things stand in Wilkes-Barre six months after last June's flood disaster.

Thanks for the tear-sheet. Wilkes-Barre is my old home town, and while I have read myriad wire reports from last June this is the first summary of the situation today that I have seen.

Wilkes-Barre is the seat of Luzerne county, a Wyoming Valley area of 400,000 population—and this Dec. 22 dispatch reports that 25,000 persons are still homeless, existing in makeshift shelters.

The flood was a disaster that "couldn't happen." But this kind of reckoning didn't take into account what a hurricane could do.

The Susquehanna River is about the size of our Red River, but with a much smaller watershed—reaching into New York state just west of Binghamton. I saw the Susquehanna on flood several times during the 18 years I lived there, before going into World War I—but they were minor affairs. Wyoming Valley narrows down to a mountainous gorge in South Wilkes-Barre, and when the Spring thaw choked the gorge with ice from upstream some of the homes in the south end of town would be flooded. But the high central city was never threatened.

Something like this used to occur at Fulton before Red River was harnessed by Denison Dam. The low flats on the west side were flooded, but Fulton on the high side was safe, although there were times when it had to be protected by a sandbag levy.

I can give you this measure on the Wilkes-Barre disaster: Imagine Red River covering up Fulton and advancing on Hope until water engulfed the ground floors of all our buildings!

The hurricane dumped fantastic rains on New York state and northern Pennsylvania and when all that water came down the Susquehanna River it was checked by that previously-mentioned gorge in South Wilkes-Barre, backed up—and turned Wyoming Valley into a lake.

The banking houses and department stores of downtown Wilkes-Barre were flooded one-story deep.

One such was the morning Record, where I started as a cub reporter. The ground story of the Record's four-story granite building was covered, but the newspaper's greatest calamity occurred in the basement, housing its 128-page press (brought from the New York News) and all its stock of newsprint rolls.

I got these details not from the wire services but from our newspaper trade journals. All three Wilkes-Barre papers, morning, evening, and Sunday (the separately-owned Sunday Independent) had to be printed in nearby Scranton and Hazleton for months while factory experts dismantled the machinery and cleaned away the silt deposited by the river.

Across the Susquehanna, on its flat western side, is Kingston, where the flood was one story deeper than in Wilkes-Barre. I received a letter from my old prep school, Wyoming Seminary (Methodist), of Kingston, appealing for help from alumnae. The flood destroyed their library and did costly damage to all the buildings.

I'll help them as best I can. What's money compared to the thought of 25,000 homeless people facing a Northern Pennsylvania Winter?

Sends warning to Nixon

Dems to try to slash VN funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield called on the Senate today to take whatever steps are necessary to end the Vietnam war as mounting foreign and domestic challenges to President Nixon's policies marked the start of the 93rd Congress.

In the wake of Tuesday's House Democratic vote in favor of an immediate cutoff of funds for the war, Mansfield told Democratic senators that Congress has "no choice" but to seek total U.S. disinvolvement because of the executive branch's failure to do so.

He also declared that the November election gave the Senate a mandate "to exercise our separate and distinct constitutional role in the operation of the federal government."

"The people have not chosen to be governed by one branch of government alone," Mansfield told the closed party caucus. "They have not asked for government by a single party. Rather, they have called for reinforcement of the Constitution's checks and balances."

US warplanes continue attacks

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes hit the southern panhandle of North Vietnam with more than 120 strikes Tuesday and today, the U.S. Command announced.

It also reported the loss of another fighter-bomber and two fliers in North Vietnam six days ago, raising the admitted total in less than three weeks to 26 aircraft and 50 airmen killed, captured or missing.

Both sets of talks to resume

PARIS (AP) — Preparations were under way today for resumption of both sets of Vietnam peace talks in Paris.

North Vietnam's chief peace negotiator, Le Duc Tho, left Hanoi for Paris and more sessions next week with Henry A. Kissinger.

U.S. sources said the North Vietnamese also agreed to the American proposal for a meeting Thursday of the weekly four-party, semipublic talks. The North Vietnamese walked out of the meeting Dec. 21 in protest against the bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong.

Tho was expected to stop en route in Peking and Moscow, as he usually does. He and President Nixon's national security adviser meet on Monday.

Their negotiations have been recessed since Dec. 13, but they scheduled further meetings after the United States called off its aerial blitz of the Hanoi-Haiphong area.

Washington said in announcing on Jan. 30 the bombing halt above the 20th parallel that it had indications the North Vietnamese were prepared to resume negotiations in what the Americans considered a serious manner.

Ground work for the next round of the Kissinger-Tho peace talks got under way Tuesday with technical experts from both sides meeting for four hours at villa in Choisy le Roi, a Paris suburb. The North Vietnamese had refused to meet with the Americans even at the technical level while the saturation bombing was going on.

William Sullivan, deputy assistant secretary of state for Southeast Asian affairs, led the U.S. delegation and said afterward that his group would meet again today with the North Vietnamese. There was no word from either side on the content or progress of the discussions.

In South Vietnam, North Vietnamese and Viet Cong attacks doubled to their highest number in nearly a month. The Saigon command reported 81 enemy attacks, 57 of them by rockets and mortars, during the 24-hour period ending at dawn today.

Highway 4, which connects Saigon with the rice-producing Mekong Delta, was cut by saboteurs who blew up a bridge southwest of Can Tho.

The lost U.S. plane was a Marine Corps A6 Intruder. The Command said it went down to unknown causes while on a mission over North Vietnam Dec. 28, two days before President Nixon halted the blitz of the Hanoi and Haiphong areas. The command did not give the location of the crash, but other sources said the plane was lost somewhere below the 20th parallel. The two crewmen were listed as missing.

The command reported the daily number of raids over north Vietnam for the first time since Dec. 18, when the attack on Hanoi and Haiphong began.

It said U.S. fighterbombers flew 84 strikes in the panhandle during the 19-hour period ending at daybreak today. B52 heavy bombers, which carry five times the bomb load of the fighter-bombers, flew 40 strikes during the same period.

The command said it had no damage assessment available because of overcast skies. The targets were supply routes, transportation systems and supply dumps.

In Cambodia, Communist troops seized another government outpost near Phnom Penh and attacked half a dozen others in an apparent bid to take the offensive from a joint Cambodian-South Vietnamese task force sweeping southern Cambodia.

The Communist attack was concentrated against the provincial capital of Tram Pna, a crossroads town 27 miles south of Phnom Penh, and a cluster of hamlets around it. Reports said Cambodian troops evacuated Sandol, a village north of Tram Pnar, but repulsed assaults against Tram Pnar and against Ang Kantoeh, a village to the west.

On Tuesday the North Vietnamese and Cambodian Communists seized two other villages near Tram Pnar after driving off government troops with a heavy mortar barrage and ground attack.

Objections won't block pact: Percy

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Vietnam has been told "in no uncertain terms" that its objection to North Vietnamese troops remaining in the South after a cease-fire will not block a U.S.-Hanoi peace pact, says Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill.

And North Vietnam may be willing to back off its demand that North and South be recognized as one country, Percy said.

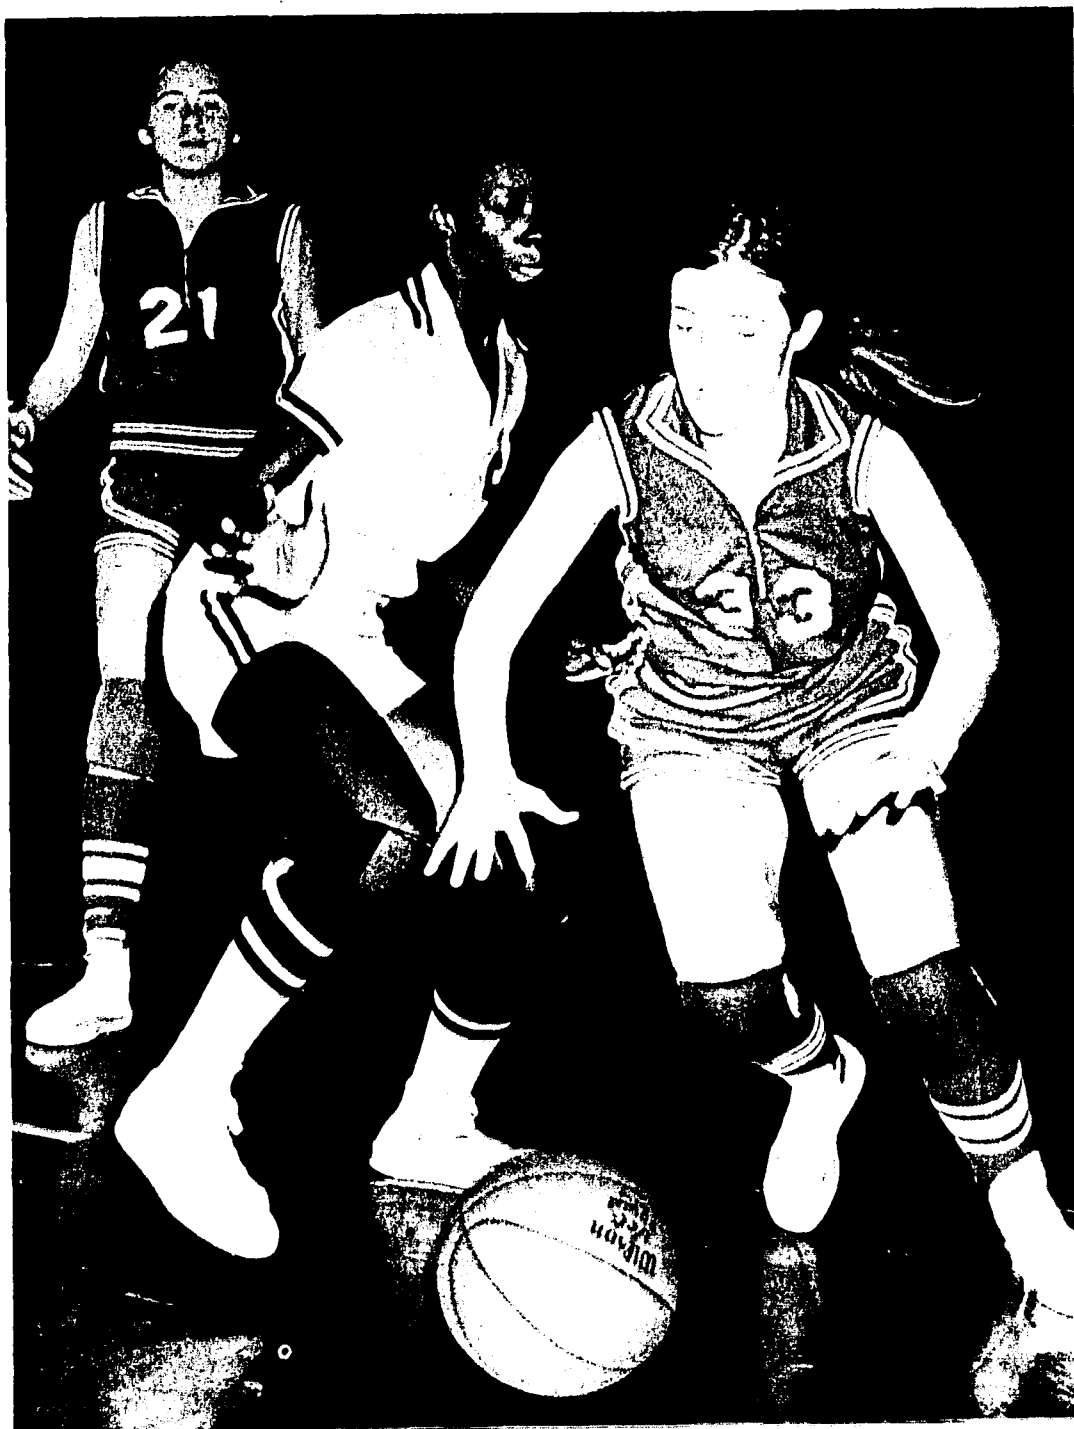

Percy also applauded the Senate Foreign Relations Committee decision to withhold action on any end-the-war measures until President Nixon's inauguration Jan. 20 in the light of the halting of the bombing of North Vietnam above the 20th Parallel.

Peace talks are scheduled to resume in Paris Jan. 8 and Percy said the delay will give the President a "breathing space" in which to achieve a negotiated settlement.

Talking with newsmen Tuesday in his home, Percy said he has no doubt that an end-the-war resolution or amendment will be introduced if no results are achieved in Paris.

Percy said he had supported 11 end-the-war mar motions over the years which failed, but he said chances for passage in the 93rd Congress are greater.

Even if the negotiations are successful, Percy said, he believes Congress will press hard to pass a war-powers bill reasserting its authority in actions such as Nixon's decision to resume massive bombing,

Bryant is ordered to pay legal fee

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office told Secretary of State Kelly Bryant Tuesday to pay a $4,384 legal fee that grew out of a state printing contract dispute.

The office refused to pay the bill because Bryant had failed to follow the attorney general's advice in the printing matter.

Ray Thornton, outgoing attorney general, said in the opinion: "Since you chose not to follow the advice of this office, we were placed in the position of not being able, consistent with our advice, to represent you. Therefore, the employment of private counsel of your choice and payment for his services became your responsibility."

Bryant said he would stand by his request for the attorney general's office to pay the bill. He said the office was responsible for legal representation for state constitutional officers.

The opinion, Bryant said, set a dangerous precedent since the funds for constitutional officers did not include money budgeted for legal fees of this type.

The secretary of state also said he would discuss the matter with Atty. Gen.-elect Jim Guy Tucker, Gov. Dale Bumpers and acting Atty. Gen. Rodney Parham.

Thornton went out of office Monday. He will represent Arkansas 4th Congressional District. Parham is acting as attorney general until Tucker is sworn in next Tuesday.

The opinion, which was hand-delivered to Bryant on Thursday, also said Bryant must pay $81.10 in court costs arising from three cases, two of which resulted in rulings that proposed constitutional amendments were invalid, the other of which resulted in a ruling that barred the American party presidential ticket from the Arkansas ballot.

Thornton suggested that Bryant use the money allotted to his office for maintenance and operations.

Urban Renewal is progressing

1972 was a busy year for Hope's Urban Renewal project.

Started 11 months ago with plans calling for the eventual cost of more than $3.41 million, the program designated 82 structures to be purchased and demolished. The local Housing Authority reported that 60 tracts have been purchased; most of the balance of the property will be purchased in the near future, according to Mike Kelly, director of the Housing Authority.

The plan's relocation activities are ahead of schedule, Kelly reported; 27 residential and 12 non-residential structures have been affected to date.

"The rehabilitation part of Urban Renewal will begin this month," Kelly said. "The engineering work on the Hazel St. transition and the re-plating has been completed up to the final review. Actual contract letting should be in February, with work beginning shortly thereafter."

The engineering phase of the downtown area is scheduled to begin within the next 60 days, he said, and is now under consideration. Two of the four planned parking lots in the downtown area are scheduled to be ready for use by about March 15.

Acquisition costs of Urban Renewal here have been estimated at $642,000, Kelly said; replacement housing grants are estimated at $240,000.

Federal assistance for Urban Renewal will total about $2.6 million with the city's in-kind share to be about $800,000.

Nixon's administration presents 'challenge' to access to information

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — President Nixon's administration presents to the American people in this new year "the most serious challenge in modern history to their unrestricted access to information about their government," the Freedom of Information Committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors said today.

Bryant --

The Little Rock law firm of Smith, Williams, Friday, Eldredge and Clark claimed the $4,384 legal fee for representing Bryant in a lawsuit filed by International Graphics Inc. of Little Rock.

Bryant had thrown out the bids of IG on four state printing contracts, although they were the apparent low bids. He acted on grounds that the firm had failed to sign general provisions sections of the documents.

In an attorney general's opinion sought by Bumpers during the dispute, Thornton said IG's bids were not defective. Circuit Court Judge Warren E. Wood of Little Rock later ruled that Bryant was wrong in throwing out the IG bids, but Wood said there was nothing the court could do about it.

The opinion that went to Bryant Thursday said that if the secretary of state had followed the advice of the attorney general's office and had accepted the bids, "We would have provided all legal services which might have been required."

"It is of little use to speculate as to what might have been the result if the contract (IG's bids) had been accepted, because whatever decision might have been reached on appeal, there would have been no expense for legal services," Thornton said.

Bryant said he had talked with Bumpers about the matter, but that Bumpers did not express an opinion on whether Bryant should pay the bill.

mittee said the latest evidence of a Nixon threat to freedom of the press was a White House aide's announcement that the administration will propose legislation to require local broadcast stations to monitor network news reports.

Robert Fichenberg, chairman of the committee, issued the statement. He is executive editor of The Knickerbocker News-Union Star of Albany and Schenectady.

The statement referred to an announcement by Clay T. Whitehead, director of the White House Office of Telecommunications Policy, which described the bill as a means to correct "imbalance or consistent bias in the networks."

Whitehead's announcement of the FOIC statement continued, "is consistent with a pattern in which the executive branch of the federal government appears committed to an assault on the First Amendment, specifically the people's right to be informed without government interference."

"So far, the executive branch's technique has been an attempt to undermine the credibility of those segments of the press that the administration has considered unfriendly. Now ... it has rolled out another weapon: the prospect of government control of TV news programming through the threat of withdrawing licenses from those stations that do not monitor network news programs to the administration's satisfaction ... There is only one appropriate word for this type of system: censorship."

Hearing on suit is slated today

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing is set for 2 p.m. Monday on a suit filed by the state Republican party asking that members of the Arkansas Senate be required to draw for terms after the legislature convenes.

The hearing before Circuit Court Judge Tom F. Digby is two hours after the 69th General Assembly convenes in regular session.

Bob Scott of Little Rock, attorney who filed the petition on behalf of state GOP Chairman Charles T. Bernard of Earle, said the GOP would be happy if the senators rendered the action moved by conducting a new drawing Monday and if there is no exchanging of terms.

The suit asks the court to invalidate the drawing for terms the senators and senators-elect held Dec. 3 at their traditional duck dinner in Little Rock.

The state Constitution requires senators to draw, by lot after each decennial reapportionment of the Senate to establish staggered terms. Eighteen senators get two-year terms in the drawing and the other 17 get four-year terms. Starting in 1974, all senators will be elected for four-year terms.

Republicans contend the drawing should have been held in an open meeting of the Senate after the legislature convenes. They also questioned the legality of a trade in which Sen. Milt Earnhart of Fort Smith swapped a four-year term for the two-year term drawn at the dinner by Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff.

The GOP suit said Bernard had information that there have been other instances of trading of terms by senators.

All members of the Senate were named as respondents in the petition.

Bernard had asked Sen. Max Howell of Jacksonville, chairman of the Senate Efficiency Committee, and other committee members to void the duck-dinner drawing and call another drawing after the legislature convenes. The petition said there had been no response to the request and that Bernard "was left with no alternative but to bring this action to compel compliance with the constitutional mandate."

Howell has said he believed the dinner drawing to be legal, but that he would abide by "the will of the Senate" on whether to call a new drawing.

Scott said the litigation was "not a challenge for challenge's sake." He said the GOP does not have money "to spend for fun."

One of the defendants in the petition is the only Republican senator, Jim Caldwell of Rogers. But Scott said Caldwell was a supporter of the suit, and not the only one among the senators.

"Ironically, we have 17 silent supporters — the 17 who drew two-year terms," Scott said.

Final voters tabulation is released

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The final tabulation of the Arkansas vote in the presidential election Nov. 7 was released Tuesday by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

President Nixon, who won Arkansas' six electoral votes, received 445,751 popular votes, or about 68.8 per cent of the total.

Sen. George S. McGovern, the defeated Democratic nominee, received 196,899.

John G. Schmitz, American party nominee, who ran as a write-in candidate, received 3,016.

The Farm Bureau will have a potluck supper at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 4. Ladies are asked to bring salads and desserts; barbecue will be furnished. Larry Patterson, state representative, will be guest speaker.

A special fund drive was conducted in Hope and the surrounding area in late November for retarded children in an effort to help the Arkansas Association for Retarded Children through a critical financial crisis, and to help salvage the Olympic program and summer camp conducted annually by that organization. Many people responded to the request for funds and a number of people cooperated to help collect the money. A total of $553.73 was contributed, and a check sent to the state organization. The money was received and a note of gratitude sent to the local organization.

Coroner's inquest into death is set

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A televised coroner's inquest will be held Jan. 17 into the death of Pierce College student Fred Bronner, 21, found dead at the bottom of a 500-foot wilderness cliff near where he had been left by fraternity brothers "to teach him a lesson."

Los Angeles County Coroner Thomas Noguchi said Tuesday he agreed with County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who had suggested a televised public inquest.

The nine jurors will determine whether death was by natural cause, accident, suicide or by another's hand.

If the jury rules that Bronner died "at the hands of another," it could lead to criminal prosecution of three of Bronner's

Chi Chi Chi fraternity brothers—John Berges, 29; Gordon Gillespy, 19, and John Morgan, 21.

Dr. John Nicklin, president of Pierce College, said, meanwhile, that Tri-Chi Fraternity had been suspended and a campus investigation had been ordered of all fraternities and sororities at Pierce.

The three fraternity brothers left the 5-foot-10, 270-pound Bronner in Angeles National Forest about 2 a.m. Dec. 22 wearing only gym shorts and a sports coat. They said they did it to "teach him a lesson" and they thought he would be able to hitch a ride back.

In an interview Sunday, Berges said Bronner was plagued by overweight and financial problems and was rude and inconsiderate at times "but also very likeable at other times, very jolly."

He added, "This is going to haunt me for the rest of my life."

An autopsy report stated death was due to fractured vertebrae, head injuries and chest plate injuries, apparently suffered in a fall down the cliff. The body was found Sunday by sheriff's deputies.

One question expected to figure in the inquest is that of Bronner's eyesight. Bronner was left in the mountains without his eyeglasses and his father, Leon, has been quoted as saying his son "couldn't see three feet" without glasses.

But Berges said he had seen Bronner without glasses as much as with them during their two years' acquaintance.

Southern University reopens today

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Southern University, the nation's largest predominantly black institution, reopens today for the first time since two students were shot to death Nov. 16 during a confrontation with law enforcement officers.

It was uncertain just how many of the 8,700 students would return to classes. More than 7,000 told the school they would return.

"We have every reason to believe that students will return peacefully to classes, and on that basis, we can begin to move toward satisfying some of the grievances," Gov. Edwin Edwards said Tuesday night.

Students at Southern's branch campus in New Orleans also announced that a tentative agreement had been reached to end the boycott at their campus.

What's in a name over the telephone?

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1973 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Offended in Houston" who doesn't like to give a secretary his name on the phone. I am a secretary and could not follow my bosses' instructions without asking names:

"Don't interrupt my conference unless Mr. X calls from New York. Don't accept any calls from Mr. Y in Seattle. He expects quotes on a contract for which I don't have the figures, and I don't want him to waste a call. If Mr. Z calls from Kansas City, tell him I'm in Europe. I'm tired of fooling with that character. If Mr. B calls from Chicago, tell him it's a deal."

My grandfather, who came over from Scotland, always said, "Never trust a man who will not proudly tell you his name."

ANOTHER SECRETARY

DEAR ABBY: "Offended in Houston" would be less offended if his secretary knew how to place a telephone call.

She should say, "Mr. Draykaup of Draykaup Nuts and Bolts would like to speak to Mr. Yourboss, please." That way Mr. Yourboss' secretary wouldn't have to ask who was calling.

But what really burns me is when Mr. Bigshot's secretary telephones and asks me to get my boss on the line, and then my boss has to wait forever until Mr. Bigshot finally gets on the line.

I now have a sure cure for that. When a secretary who makes a practice of doing this calls and says, "Mr. Bigshot wants to talk to Mr. Yourboss," I say, "Then please have Mr. Bigshot call him!" and I hang up.

ST. LOUIS SECRETARY

DEAR ABBY: Doesn't that idiot signed "Offended in Houston" realize that a busy executive doesn't have time to talk to everybody who calls him?

When I'm in a meeting or on another telephone call, I don't want to be disturbed, so I ask my secretary to find out who's calling so I can return the calls when I am free. Some calls I don't return at all because the caller is a pest and a time waster.

People who solicit funds on the telephone are a pain in the neck. I rarely return their calls, but I do give consideration to those who write letters.

BUSY EXECUTIVE

DEAR ABBY: I don't mind being asked by a secretary, "May I tell him who is calling?" But what really bugs me is having a child answer the telephone, and in a whining voice ask, "Who is this?"

NO PATIENCE IN MILWAUKEE

DEAR ABBY: When I make a telephone call, I say, "Hello, my name is Nicky Thompson." This establishes every thing from the start. And when I pronounce my name, I say it clearly. I am so annoyed when a person mumbles his name as though he were ashamed of it. I don't mean to sound smug, but it is so simple to identify oneself and thus relieve the other party of asking who you are.

Stephens-McKown vows solemnized in Blevins

The wedding of Miss Deborah Gail Stephens and Guy Stanley McKown was solemnized at 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 29 at the Bruce Memorial United Methodist Church of Blevins. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Stephens of Blevins, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy McKown of Van Buren.

Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Herbert M. Stephens of Hope and the late Mr. Stephens and the late Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Erwin of Dallas. Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Carrie Kelly of Van Buren, the late Lee Kelly, and the late Mr. and Mrs. J.H. McKown, all of Van Buren.

The Rev. R.T. Jarrell, pastor of the Bruce Memorial United Methodist Church, heard the marriage vows, and Luther Hollamon, organist, played the wedding music.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of delustered peau de soie and cotton Venice lace featuring an Empire bodice and bouffant skirt with a chapel-length train. It was fashioned with a Mandarin collar and Camelot sleeves. Her matching headpiece of Venice lace accented with pearls and secured to French silk illusion was tiered into a chapel-length mantilla. Her bouquet was a gardenia encircled with stephanotis.

Miss Loren Stephens, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a floor-length dress fashioned with a lavender Empire bodice and a dark purple A-line skirt.

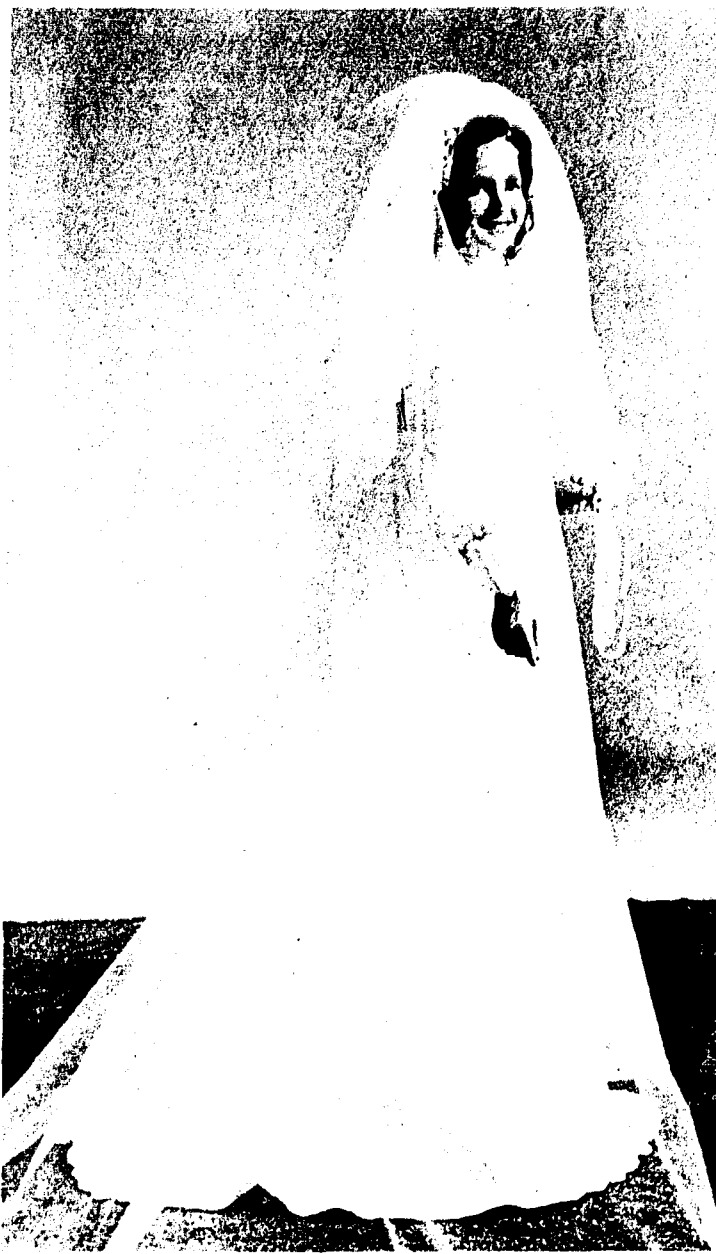

Jimmy McKown served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mark Stephens, brother of the bride, and Clay Lehman.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stephens wore a beige dress of double knit with a green orchid pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. McKown, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue suit of double knit with a white orchid pinned at her shoulder.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room.

The bride attended Hendrix College and Texarkana Community College. The groom has a B.A.S. from the University of Arkansas and is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. McKown will be at home in Sherman, Tex. where he is associated with Nest Fresh Farms, Inc.

By ANN HENCKEN

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Robert Redford is back on this year's International Best Dressed list for men and women.

"I didn't know ski parkas were in this year," said Redford, in a call from Utah.

"That's where all us fashion plates hang out, he said, adding that a hand cast was part of his wardrobe right now, as he'd recently had a skiing accident.

Redford joins 29 men and 29 women elected to the list by vote of some 2,000 fashion designers, fashion press and theatrical and social personalities throughout the world. The winners were announced today by publicist Eleanor Lambert.

Redford, who will star in the movie of F. Scott Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby," prefers Borsalino hats, Indian jewelry, Sears blue work shirts, boots, tennis shoes, jeans and durable clothes from the 1930s.

He doesn't like heliotrope, anything Ivy League, trendy clothes or clothes he can't move around easily in.

"I like clothes best when I've worn them for two or three years," said Redford, adding that he still wears a 15-year-old leather jacket and a tan suede jacket he got at a Paris flea market in 1957.

Those on the list of 12 best-dressed men with Redford are Mick Jagger, rock star; Mayor

John V. Lindsay of New York; Richard Roundtree, film star in "Shaft"; and Robert Evans, movie executive.

Others include Gianni Bulgari, Italian jeweler; Billy Baldwin, New York interior decorator; John Gallier, international socialite; David Susskind, television personality;

Fred Hughes, with Andy Warhol Enterprises; Armando Orsini, New York restaurateur; and David Mahoney, chairman of North Simon.

Others include Mrs. Reinaldo Herrera Jr. of Caracas, Venezuela; Mrs. Ronald Reagan, wife of the governor of California; Mrs. Frederick Melhado, New York; Signora Gianluigi Gabetti, Milan, Italy; Mrs. Mick Jagger, wife of the rock star; Mrs. William Buckley Jr., wife of the author, columnist and television commentator; and Mrs. William Clay Ford of Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Hope turns tide on Stephens

By RICKY FAWCETT
Star Sports Writer

In the face of a team that had earlier in the season ended their own 11 game win streak, the Hope Ladycats turned the tide on the Stephens Roadrunners by destroying a 16 game winning streak, accumulated by Stephens, in a close 37-34 battle.

Playing in their own Jones Field House, the Ladycats showed they have the pride and determination to dethrone the defending girls state basketball champions.

Playing a near perfect first quarter the Ladycats ran to a 12-2 lead. Janet McCain led this charge for the offense, while all of the guards were determined not to let the Stephens girls touch the net.

The teams left the court for halftime with the score more handsomely resuming a good battle at 20-12. Donna Moses had brought the Roadrunners back by scoring six points in the second quarter of action.

The Roadrunners tied the score at 22-22 late in the third quarter before Korny Coleman hit two field goals to send the score to 26-22 at the end of three quarters.

Gigi Gladney sank two early fourth quarter free throws only to have Stephens score eight unanswered points to take a 30-28 lead. McCain bounced back for the Ladycats to manage six points while the Roadrunners could register nothing. Hope put topping on the cake by adding three free throws and walking off the court for the night as 37-34 victors.

Janet McCain led the Hope scorers with 21 points as Korny Coleman pitched in 10 and Gladney finished with 6. Donna Moses topped all scorers in the game with 26 points for Stephens.

Earlier in the evening the Hope Kitty Cats held on early only to have the Stephens Junior Girls rout them 51-31.

Brenda Charles led the way for Stephens' victory with 25 points while Barbie Watson paced the Hope attack with 18.

The defending state champ Magnolia Panther team travel to town to face their counterparts as the Hope Bobcats, Bobkittens, and B Bruins return to battle Thursday night.

Landry pondering what went wrong

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Cowboy Coach Tom Landry says he plans to "do whatever it takes to get us back" to the National Football League championship.

Landry has called meeting after meeting in the wake of Dallas' thorough 26-3 licking by Washington in the National Conference title game, pondering what went wrong.

He said the dethroned World Champions "never had a consistent team all year and you're never confident if you aren't consistent."

Landry added "There's definitely the possibility of some trades in the off-season. There are a number of things that need to be done but I'm not going to pinpoint them at this stage."

He admitted "We just didn't have the kind of team to go to the Super Bowl this year. We were good enough to get into the (NFC) championship game, but we really didn't beat many top teams. We lost our two big games to Washington."

The Cowboys hurt for a pass rush most of the season because of poor defensive end

play and injuries to tackle Bob Lilly.

Cornerback Charlie Waters showed his inexperience in the title game as the Redskins picked him apart.

Running back Calvin Hill, who became the first Cowboy to gain over 1,000 yards, has already volunteered his services as tight end next year.

"I'd love it," he said.

Landry noted that the Cowboys "don't have great speed outside" and "I don't know that it hurt us in the title game although it could have."

Cornerback Herb Adderley

Landry was asked if the Cowboy quarterback situation will be wide open again at camp in 1973 and he said: "I'm not sure on the quarterback situation. I've got to measure everything. I'll let things settle down before I make a decision."

He said he "assumed" both Craig Morton and Roger Staubach would return for the 1973 season "until something different happens."

CHARGERS FIRE COACH

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The San Diego Chargers have begun sifting through the wreckage of their 1972 National Football League season, firing assistant coach Phil Bengtson only three days after he rejoined the team and placing veteran quarterback John Hadl on the trading block.

Roberto Clemente Week is declared

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Peter Flaherty has declared this Roberto Clemente Week in Pittsburgh, and in Harrisburg the State Senate has moved to have the late Pirate great inducted immediately into baseball's Hall of Fame.

"This will provide us all with an opportunity to pause and reflect on the many contributions Roberto Clemente made to this community both as a great ball player and humanitarian," the mayor said Tuesday.

He said Tuesday a portrait of the 38-year-old right-fielder would be placed in the lobby of the City-County Building for the duration of the mourning period.

"The Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the people of Pennsylvania sorrowfully join the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the family of Roberto Clemente in mourning his tragic and untimely death," read a condolence resolution passed by a unanimous voice vote Tuesday.

AL IS NOT SO WEAK

BOSTON (AP) — The American League isn't as weak as some National League baseball men would have you believe.

When the Oakland A's beat the favored Cincinnati Reds in the 1972 World Series it marked the fourth AL series victory in the last seven years.

AFL:

Harris named AP's Rookie of the Year

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Franco Harris said before his first season in the National Football League he just wanted "to do a job for the Pittsburgh Steelers."

"I have a very good feeling about the Steelers," said the team's husky, soft-spoken No. 1 draft choice at the start of 1972 drills.

The 230-pound Harris, commander of "Franco's Italian Army," cracked Pittsburgh's starting line-up at midseason and exploded for 10 touchdowns. The son of a black father and Italian mother

Buchanon named NFL Rookie of the Year

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Opposing players, coaches and scouts always seem to learn about Willie Buchanon before the fans do.

As a college senior at San Diego State, Buchanon drew little attention because opposing quarterbacks practically never threw to a receiver he was guarding.

In his final season he allowed only 12 completions in 46 passes, intercepted five, then grabbed three more in the East-West game.

The lack of headlines didn't fool the Green Bay Packers, who made the 6-foot-1, 190-pound cornerback their first draft choice and signed him to a reported six-figure contract.

Their judgement was confirmed Tuesday when Buchanon, 22, was named the National Football League's Defensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press.

Despite a season in which he started every game, tied for the club lead with four interceptions and made a big contribution to the Packers' vastly improved secondary, Buchanon says he ranked below two other Green Bay rookies—kicker Chester Marcol and quarterback Jerry Tagge—in publicity.

"When you get rookies like Chester Marcol and Jerry Tagge on the same team, especially Marcol who's a great placekicker, you're still in the background," Buchanon said with a chuckle Tuesday in an interview from his San Diego apartment, from which he commutes to classes at San Diego State. He needs 11 units for his degree in education.

"It wasn't like I thought," Buchanon said of his first NFL season. "I thought they were going to come out bombing me. Jim Hill (Packer safety) kept telling me they know I'm a rookie and they're going to pick on me. But they didn't really try to."

It didn't take opposing teams long to learn about Buchanon. In his first regular-season game, he intercepted a pass and he also established a reputation as a fierce tackler.

Don Doll, who coaches the Green Bay defensive backs, calls his prize rookie "the best open-field tackler in the game."

The 1973 Metropolitan intercollegiate track championships will be held in Princeton's Jadwin Gym on Washington's Birthday, Feb. 19. Admission will be free.

Hayes said "I will be represented at the arraignment" when asked if he would make an appearance. He and his Ohio State football team, losers to Southern Cal 42-17 in the Rose Bowl game, were to leave today for Columbus.

Greatest Clemente catch

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The last year of Roberto Clemente's baseball career was a perfect one, in the field at least.

During his 18-years in the major leagues, Clemente won 12 Golden Glove awards, including last season, when he made 204 plays without an error.

He made so many spectacular plays during his life, it would be nearly impossible to single out his greatest efforts. But many baseball historians agree that his catch in the Houston Astrodome in 1971 was one of the best ever, by anyone.

Bob Watson, a right-handed hitter for the Astros, slammed a line drive into the right field corner, near the wall. Clemente broke with the crack of the bat, raced full speed to within two steps of the wall, leaped and made a twisting, one-handed grab, hitting the wall on his way down.

As for the Pirate star's greatest throw ever, many point to the one he let fly against the Cardinals at old Forbes Field here.

Orlando Cepeda was on first and Tim McCarver singled to right. Clemente charged the ball and it skidded through his legs, going to the wall at the 375-foot marker.

Clemente chased to the wall, picked up the ball, and in the same motion, turned and threw toward the plate.

Woody Hayes admits tangle with photographer

By DAN BERGER
Associated Press Sports Writer

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Woody Hayes says the man accusing him of battery is not the man with whom he had an altercation on the sidelines before the Rose Bowl game.

The veteran Ohio State coach was accused Tuesday in Pasadena of battery on Art Rogers, a 55-year sports photographer for the Los Angeles Times, who claimed that Hayes pushed his camera in his face, causing double vision.

Hayes has admitted having an altercation with a photographer. Tuesday night he was interviewed at a local television station and a tape of Rogers was shown. Hayes looked at Rogers on film, then said, "That's not the man."

Hayes said, "I'm confused. The man on the field was not that man in the film." He said the man he had a dispute with

"had a beard. A big camera covered his face but I could still see the beard."

Still confused, Hayes remained in the television studio and had the film rerun for him. He maintained that the man in the film, clean-shaven, 55-year-old Rogers, was not the man with whom he had the dispute.

Rogers' formal complaint Tuesday charged Hayes, 59, with causing him double vision and a minor injury in the incident 20 minutes before the game started. Arraignment was scheduled for Jan. 15.

Hayes said "I will be represented at the arraignment" when asked if he would make an appearance. He and his Ohio State football team, losers to Southern Cal 42-17 in the Rose Bowl game, were to leave today for Columbus.

Three in a row

USC named national champs

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern California's unbeaten Trojans capped a season-long stay in first place today when they were named college football's national champions for the third time in 11 years. The vote was unanimous.

Southern Cal, only undefeated team in the country, capped a 12-0 season and nailed down The Associated Press Trophy and with it the 1972 national crown Monday with a 42-17 rout of Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. The Trojans received all 50 first-place votes and a perfect score of 1,000 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters in The AP poll as they officially dethroned Nebraska's 1970-71 champs, who were seeking an unprecedented third consecutive title.

Southern Cal, eighth in the preseason ratings, shot to the

No. 1 spot following an opening 31-10 rout of Arkansas while top-ranked Nebraska was losing to UCLA 20-17. They were never headed as Colorado, Oklahoma and Alabama all took turns as the main challenger.

Oklahoma, unanimous runner-up to Nebraska last season, again finished second. The Sooners, who blanked Penn State 14-0 in the Sugar Bowl, were the second choice of 43 voters and received 872 points.

Texas, a come-from-behind 17-13 winner over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl, finished third with 667 points, barely edging defending champion Nebraska. The Cornhuskers demolished Notre Dame 40-6 in the Orange Bowl and wound up fourth in the rankings with 665 points.

Auburn's Cinderella Tigers, who weren't ranked in the preseason poll, climaxed a magnificent 10-1 season with a 24-3 trimming of Colorado in the Gator Bowl and finished No. 5 with 631 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten were Michigan, Alabama, Tennessee, Ohio State and Penn State. Michigan did not play in a postseason game while Tennessee outlasted Louisiana State 24-17 in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

LSU finished 11th, followed by North Carolina, Arizona State, Notre Dame, UCLA, Colorado, North Carolina State, Louisville, Washington State and Georgia Tech.

The preseason poll predicted that Nebraska would win the national championship, followed by Colorado, Ohio State, Arkansas, Penn State, Oklahoma, Alabama, Southern Cal, Washington and Michigan.

Csonka repeats as Dolphins' MVP

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK— (NEA) —
Larry Csonka was named the most valuable player on the most victorious football team in National Football League history. The powerful running back was named by his Miami Dolphin teammates the NEA 1972 Third Down Trophy winner, symbolic of team MVP.

The Dolphins came d
through the regular season
of the American Conference with a 14-0 record and Csonka led the way, gaining over 1,000 yards rushing for the second straight season. It was also the second straight season in which Csonka was named Third Down Trophy winner.

The other MVPs in the league as chosen by their teammates in a poll taken by Newspaper Enterprise Association are:

BALTIMORE: Bob Vogel,
offensive tackle, and Marty Domres, quarterback (tie).
Domres, who took over for the estimable but aging Johnny Unitas, led the AFC
in passing statistics for several weeks—as Vogel applied the necessary protective blocks.

BUFFALO: O.J. Simpson, running back. Despite a paper-buffalo line, O.J. finally broke into his own—leading the league in ground gaining.

CINCINNATI: Tommy Casanova, defensive back. A singular honor for a rookie, and for a rookie defensive player.

CLEVELAND: Mike
Phipps, quarterback, and

Frank Pitts, wide receiver (tie). A pip of a passing pair was Phipps to Pitts.

DENVER: Floyd Little,
running back. He becomes the only man to win a Third Down trophy three straight seasons.

HOUSTON: Mike Tilleman, defensive tackle. An unusual repeater. He won the Third Down trophy in 1970 with New Orleans.
Traded to Houston in 1971,
he is now the top player for a second team.

KANSAS CITY: Jim Lynch, linebacker. The former Notre Dame All-American is now at the top of his game. Beat out Otis Taylor for the award.

NEW ENGLAND: Reggie Rucker, wide receiver. He tried almost single-handedly
to plug up the Patriots' dike.

NEW YORK: John Rig-

gins, running back. He combined with Emerson Boozer and Joe Namath to create
one of the most exciting
backfields in pro football.

OAKLAND: Fred Bilenkoff, wide receiver. The man with the steel-trap hands. A Third Down Trophy repeater.

PITTSBURGH: Franco Harris, running back. The rookie from Penn State led the Steelers to their first division title in history, and on the way tied Jim Brown's record for most consecutive games rushing for 100 yards or more, six.

SAN DIEGO: Cid
Edwards, running back. Cleo-phus (Cid, for obvious reasons, is a nickname) was traded from St. Louis for Leon Burns this year. The Chargers never regretted it.

Spirited workouts precede Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) —
Coaches of the North and South Squads reported spirited work-outs Tuesday in preparation for the 24th annual Senior Bowl
all-star football game Saturday.

"We had a big surprise in our afternoon drill," said Lou Saban of the Buffalo Bills, who coaches the North.

He said it started out as a dummy scrimmage and evolved into "a real hard-hitting session, adding, "When they started to bumping each other real good in the afternoon, I wasn't about to blow a whistle."

The coach of the South squad,
Webb Ewbank of the New York
Jets, had a similar reaction:

"We had to calm our players
down to avoid a full-scale scrimmage."

Ewbank said he put in "about 10 running plays and a half dozen pass plays," while Saban

said, "We put in six rushing plays and six passing plays during the two workouts and plan to add just about that many more."

Saban had all 30 of his players on hand but Ewbank was short five gridmen who played in the Cotton Bowl Monday—
running back Joe Labue, center Jim Krapf, defensive back Bobby McKinney, all of Alabama, and Texas lineman Jerry Sise-
more.

Harding downs Arkansas Tech.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Harding and Arkansas Tech,
both winless in Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference play so far this season going into

Tuesday night's action, battled through three overtime periods
before the Bison finally settled
the matter 105-98.

Tech and Ozarks now are the only winless teams in AIC play.
Harding improved its loop
mark to 1-2.

In other action Tuesday night, the University of Arkansas at Monticello nipped
Louisiana College 63-61.

Tech and Harding fought to a 69-69 draw at the end of regulation play and still could not settle the matter at the end of the first overtime 79-79, nor at the conclusion of the second overtime 87-87.

Tim Vick then led a Bison charge in the third extra session as he stole the ball and scored with pushing Harding ahead 99-96 to 1:06 left. Tech never caught up after that.

Vick was the top scorer for Harding with 30 points. He was followed by Larry Aggas with 28.

The Harding victory overshadowed a 48-point production
by Tech's Ron Edmonds.

UAM constructed a 39-28 halftime lead and held on for its triumph over nonconference foe
Louisiana College.

William Hill sparked the UAM attack with 16 points and Harold Goffin added 14. Steve Cooley scored 19 for Louisiana College and Mike Cook contributed 16.

Victory lifts Flames to 4th place tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Would you believe the fledgling Atlanta Flames in the National Hockey League playoffs?

"It's too early to tell," said
Coach Bernie "Boom Boom"
Geoffrion following Tuesday night's 6-1 rout of the Flames' fellow expansionists, the New York Islanders.

Nevertheless, the victory lifted the Flames into a fourth-place tie with Philadelphia in the West Division ... and fourth is the last playoff berth.
The Pittsburgh Penguins blew
a chance to make it a threeway deadlock when they bowed to the St. Louis Blues 5-4 in the only other NHL action.

The World Hockey Association had the night off.

"After this month, I'll be able to get a good idea of whether we have a shot at making the playoffs," croaked Geoffrion, whose normally raspy voice—
he was struck in the throat by a puck as a young hockey player—was even hoarser than usual. The Boomer yelled a little too much during Saturday night's 1-1 tie with the Montreal Canadiens, his old club, and came up with a touch of laryngitis.

Despite his throbbing tonsils, Geoffrion managed to holler his way to victory against the hapless Islanders, who show a dismal 4-29-4 record compared to Atlanta's 16-18-6.

The Flames were only leading 2-1 after one period on goals by Larry Romanchych and Keith McCreary, the latter snapping a 1-1 tie when he whipped a close-in backhand past New York goalie Billy Smith at 17:53.

Bucks drop 10th straight game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Do the New York Knicks have the Milwaukee Bucks psyched?

No, insists Milwaukee Coach Larry Costello, who watched his club drop its 10th straight National Basketball Association game at Madison Square Garden Tuesday night 102-92.

Yes, says Jerry Lucas of the Knicks, who helped Bill Bradley pace a fourth quarter New York surge that produced the victory.

Elsewhere in the NBA
Tuesday night, Cleveland ripped Phoenix 111-88, Buffalo
rapped Philadelphia 114-110,
Chicago downed Atlanta 100-90,
Boston whipped Houston 130-110, Golden State defeated Los Angeles 112-106 and Portland took Kansas City-Omaha 104-87.

There were no games scheduled in the American Basketball Association.

Milwaukee got 38 points from Kareem Abdul-Jabbar but still bowed to the Knicks in what is becoming a characteristic fourth quarter fudg.

The last time the two teams met in New York, the Knicks shutout the Bucks 19-0 over the final 5½ minutes to take out an 86-85
victory.

Lucas and Bradley scored eight points apiece in the fourth quarter New York rally. The score was tied 75-75 after three periods before the Knicks took control. But don't suggest to Costello that there's anything psychological about the Knicks and Bucks.

"I don't believe that and neither do my players," said Costello. "We hit them on a hot night. I don't think the Knicks can play any better. They don't beat themselves. We played good, but they played super."

Bradley led New York with 22 points and Walt Frazier had 19 while Lucas finished with 13.

Buffalo's Bob McAdoo scored 30 points and Elmore Smith added 23 and grabbed 15
rebounds, leading the Braves past hapless Philadelphia.

It was the 12th straight loss and 36th in 39 games this season for the 76ers, who got 23 points from Fred Carter.

Boston stayed one game ahead of the Knicks in the NBA's Atlantic Division by

whacking Houston for the Celtics' 30th victory in 36 games.

John Havlicek paced the Celtics with 24 points and Paul Silas added 22. Jimmy Walker had 25 and Rudy Tomjanovich 24 for the Rockets.

Austin Carr's 20 points helped Cleveland beat Phoenix for the first time ever.

The Cavaliers, who had lost all previous 10 meetings with the Suns in their three NBA seasons, took control early and were never headed. John Johnson and Lenny Wilkens had 16 points each and Rick Roberson added 14 points and 13
rebounds for Cleveland.

Chicago moved to within 1½ games of first place Milwaukee in the Midwest Division by whipping Atlanta while the Bucks were losing in New York.

Chet Walker had 26 points
and Bob Love 19 for the Bulls, who stood off a 38-point show
by Pete Maravich of Atlanta.

Rick Barry hit a last-minute field goal and Jeff Mullins stole a pass and also scored as Golden State downed Los Angeles.

Barry finished with 30 points and Mullins had 29. Center Nate Thurmond scored 14 points but grabbed 24 rebounds to 21 for the Lakers' Wilt Chamberlain.

Gail Goodrich led Los Angeles with 28 points and Jerry West had 28.

Sidney Wicks hit 23 points and Lloyd Neal added 19 and grabbed 17 rebounds to lead
Portland past Kansas City-
Omaha. Nate Archibald scored 29 for the Kings.

Fans boo unbeaten Maryland

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's unusual for a team that wins by 18 points to get booed,
but it happened to Maryland,
the nation's second-ranked college basketball team.

The unbeaten Terps made it
eight straight by beating Kent State 76-58 Tuesday night, but their play was lethargic. The boos came loud and clear from the crowd of 13,134 at College Park, Md., when Kent State ran off eight straight points in the first half to cut Maryland's lead to seven points.

"I don't think we were ready to play mentally," said Lefty Driesell, Maryland coach. "But a good club has to be ready all the time. Our guys have to learn that."

Tom McMillen, the Terps' 6-foot-10 star, made only four of 10 shots and sat out the last 15 minutes with four personals.

Len Elmore, one of the few Terps who was up to par, equalled a school record by grabbing 24 rebounds. He scored 19 points.

Vanderbilt, which dropped from 10th to 11th in the Associated Press rankings after losing to Memphis State Saturday, pulled out a 71-66 victory over Louisiana State. Lee Fowler's
20 points led the Commodores, who didn't get the lead for good until late in the game at 67-65.

North Carolina State, No. 4 in the AP rankings, scored an exhibition victory over Athletics in Action 105-88 and No. 13 Providence romped over Brown 83-53.

Michigan State, fresh from its victory in the Kodak Classic, knocked Mississippi State from the unbeaten ranks 90-82
in the first round of the Senior Bowl as Bill Kilgore and Mike Robinson each threw in 22 points. South Alabama upset Hawaii 87-76 in the other first round game at Mobile.

Mike Lee scored 29 points to lead Syracuse over Holy Cross 80-71 as the Orange rebounded from its 90-76 defeat

Major battle over Senate committee is shaping up

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A major battle between liberals and conservatives over composition of the Senate Finance Committee is shaping up at the outset of the 93rd Congress.

Some liberals say the record of the Congress hinges on the outcome of the next few days since the committee will handle much of the major legislation of the 1973-74 sessions.

This includes tax reform, national health insurance and welfare reform.

The committee had 16 members in the last Congress, nine Democrats and seven Republicans. Two from each side retired or were defeated, and it is these vacancies that open the possibility of a change in the committee's makeup.

There may be additional openings since it is possible the committee will be enlarged.

For several years Finance has been dominated by conservatives, mostly from Southern and small Western states, and liberals contend the committee is far more conservative than the Senate.

It is believed unlikely that conservatives will lose control even if the panel's size is increased. Liberals say, however, that even a stronger minority position would enable them to have a much greater influence on legislation.

The action of the committee's conservative majority in killing welfare-reform proposals in the last two congresses has helped to fuel the fight.

The first skirmish in the battle is expected at today's Democratic caucus in advance of the convening of Congress at noon.

It is expected that discussion at the caucus will include possible enlarging of both Finance and the Democratic Steering Committee which makes committee assignments for Democrats.

Liberals want Finance increased to 21 members, which would mean 12 Democrats and 9 Republicans, leaving five vacancies on the Democratic side and four on the Republican.

In the event it is enlarged, four of the new Democrats reported to have the best chance are liberals—Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, Mike Gravel of Alaska, William D. Hathaway of Maine and Adlai E. Stevenson III of Illinois. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas probably would be the conservative Democrat.

On the Republican side, at least one liberal, Charles H. Percy of Illinois, is reportedly interested in the committee. Other potential new Republicans appear to be Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee, a moderate conservative, and William V. Roth Jr. of Delaware.

Religion blamed in prison strike

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — A nonsanctioned, prison-based religion which an associate warden thinks is aimed at "making prisons nice places to be" is believed to be behind a work strike at San Quentin Prison.

Associate Warden James Park said inmates assumed to be leaders of the Church of the New Song, a branch of which was organized here about six months ago, are believed to have started a strike in which over half the prison's 1,800 inmates refused to go to work Tuesday.

"They have an egalitarian creed and a lot of verbiage which makes them appear to have the same kind of structure as a legitimate religion," Park said in an interview. "The whole thrust is to improve prison conditions, but I think it goes beyond that to making prisons nice place to be."

"I don't think their motivation is purely spiritual," Park continued. "Their communion services specify using Harvey-Bristol Cream Sherry and porthouse steak."

Park said the work strike passed without incident. He called Tuesday "a quiet day," although striking prisoners verbally abused those who went to work.

He said officials have put extra guards on duty and are feeding prisoners in small groups.

Phil Guthrie, information officer for the California Department of Correction, said the department has refused to sanction the Church of the New Song as a legitimate religion, despite demands by members at Folsom and San Quentin prisons.

One of the demands circulated among prisoners during the work strike asked official recognition for the Church of the New Song and establishment of prison space for its activities.

The strikers also demanded public telephones, an end to indeterminate sentencing, conjugal visits within prison, minimum wages for convict workers and permission to join labor unions.

"There are some suggestions that confinement itself is contrary to their religious beliefs," Guthrie said. "So we view it as a pretty obvious subterfuge and not a bonafide religion."

The Church of the New Song was founded in December 1970 at the federal penitentiary in Marion, Ill., by Harry W. Theriault, 35, a convicted bank robber. He proclaimed himself bishop and demanded that his followers be treated the same as those of established religions.

Prison officials refused, and federal courts in Illinois concurred with them when Theriault appealed. However, a U.S. District Court judge in Atlanta ruled last February that the Church of the New Song must receive the rights of other denominations in the federal prison system. He denied claims to steak and sherry as part of the ritual.

STAMPEDE ON HIGHWAY
BRERETON, England (AP) — It took wild horses to convince Cheshire motorist Eddie Swindells he was not having another nightmare. Driving home late one night, three terrified wild horses stampeded across his path, wrecking the car. Swindells, who was slightly hurt, said later: "At the time I couldn't believe it. Imagine what the insurance people are going to say."

SARAH CALDWELL TO DIRECT IN N.Y.
NEW YORK (AP) — Sarah Caldwell, one of America's most acclaimed directors of opera, will stage Hans Werner Henze's "The Young Lord" for the New York City Opera in the spring.

Miss Caldwell, founder and artistic director of the Opera Company of Boston, in the past has rejected all offers to stage opera productions for companies other than her own.

"The Young Lord," which had its world premiere in April 1965 at the Deutsche Oper in Berlin, will be done in an English translation.

The company also will add Alberto Ginastera's "Beatriz Cenci" and Claudio Monteverdi's "Poppea" to its repertoire.

A letter from Winnipeg reads in part: "I may be the local counterpart of your 'Hard Luck Joe.' Every time I can run into a bit of misfortune I do."

"Take this instance. I held 14 high-card points with 4-3-3-3 distribution. Certainly a perfect hand for a two no-trump response to my partner's club opening. Anyone else would have no trouble making the game but my opponents had five spade-tricks in before I could start. Why am I so unlucky?"

This reader is somewhat like Hard Luck Joe. Joe has hard luck but invariably his hard luck is brought on by his own error.

This player held a hand that qualified as a two no-trump response, but no good player would actually respond two no-trump with it.

The automatic correct response to the one club opening is one heart.

Had South bid one heart, North would raise him to two hearts. South might then jump to three no-trump, but North would correct to four hearts and no amount of hard luck could keep South from making his game. Actually he would make 11 tricks with the diamond finesse working for him.

Wasn't South entitled to assume that three no-trump would be the right final contract? No, he wasn't. If it was, then a one-heart response would not prevent getting to three no-trump. Maybe North would be declarer but you get just as many points when your partner makes a contract as when you do.

Demos preparing to challenge President Nixon

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The 93rd Congress opens today with its Democratic majorities moving to challenge President Nixon's Indochina and spending policies even before the sounding of the first gavel.

House Democrats voted 154 to 75 Tuesday to support legislation to cut off all war funds at once, subject only to provisions for the return of U.S. prisoners and safe conduct for withdrawing American forces.

And top Senate Democrats went to court in an attempt to force the Nixon administration to spend highway money that Congress has appropriated.

Prior to the opening of the new Congress at noon today, Senate Democrats and Republicans scheduled separate caucuses. Mike Mansfield of Montana and Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania had no announced opposition for re-election as Democratic and Republican leaders, respectively.

The Senate and House planned largely ceremonial opening sessions today with leaders of both houses vowing to reassert the role of Congress in the next two years.

"We have our mandate too," House Speaker Carl Albert told fellow Democrats after they Alaska disappeared Oct. 17. O'Neill's successor as whip will be appointed Jan. 10.

Seventeen senior Senate Democrats—the party's leaders and 15 committee chairmen—joined Tuesday in a federal court case that seeks to force the Nixon administration to spend highway funds voted by Congress.

The move was described by sponsors as the first step in a major effort to challenge the administration's refusal to spend certain domestic appropriations.

Democrats emerging from Tuesday's day-long caucus told reporters they were impressed by the determination expressed by Albert and O'Neill to provide the leadership needed to help Congress regain lost power and challenge administration efforts to dismantle domestic programs passed by past Democratic administrations.

Mansfield took an approach similar to Albert's, declaring in an interview that "we intend to go at least half-way to be considerate and helpful."

"After all," he added, "the Congress is a co-equal branch of government."

The new Senate has 57 Democrats and 43 Republicans, a net Democratic gain of two. The election gave the House 243 Democrats, including Boggs, Begich, the late Rep. George Collins of Illinois, and Rep. John Moakley of Massachusetts, who was elected as an independent. There are 192 Republicans, 13 more than in the 92nd Congress.

Boyleing it down

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Most of the world's supply of ice is concentrated in the polar regions. Antarctica is the larger ice cube. If the antarctic ice cap were melted at a steady rate, it would yield enough water to keep all the rivers on earth flowing for 750 years.

Mountain pioneers often turned to weeds and other plants for medicines. They thought jewelweed took the itch out of poison ivy, poke berries helped rheumatism, mullein was good for colds. Science now believes many of these home remedies really are helpful.

A survey in 1962 found that, of the 328 million new prescriptions, written in the United States, 25 per cent were for drugs derived from plants.

Sign on the door of a pro basketball coach's office: "I'm busy; but, if you can look over the transom, come in."

Quotable notables: "Only one thing has been lent to youth and age in common — discontent." — Matthew Arnold.

How it began: Louis Braille, the blind musician who developed the raised-dot system that has enabled millions of blind persons to learn to read, got his idea from an army captain. The captain had invented a set of night-writing symbols for use on the battlefield, one dot meaning to advance, two dots to retreat and so on. Hearing of this, Braille developed the idea into his system for rapid reading by the sightless.

Executive signs: From the desk of Jules Podell, owner of the Copacabana night club: "The world changes so fast that a man could't be wrong all the time if he tried."

Folklore: It's unlucky to wear a black dress to a wedding. If you send a girl a blue ribbon, it's a sign you love her; if you send her a green ribbon, that you hate her. Chinese copyists used to make period marks at the end of a sentence in red ink to keep evil spirits away from themselves and their readers.

Longevity: Man is the longest-lived mammal, and the only one known to live 100 or more years. It was once thought that elephants did, but none actually has been known to exceed 70 years, and most wild elephants are probably dead by the age of 35. The horse has a record span of 62 years; a zoo hippopotamus made it to 49; bears, lions and cattle live into their thirties.

LITTER OVERBOARD

ALSO IS A NO, NO NEW YORK (AP) — To the fisherman there's nothing like that moment when the rod bends double, reeling in what he thinks just might be a seven pound lunker and then finding out what he's hooked is someone's discarded rubber waders.

Thoughtless litterers have turned some fishing areas into what amounts to garbage dumps and have posed a general threat to health, says Keep America Beautiful Inc., the national environment improvement organization.

Floating debris can foul propellers and foul up water skiers while sunken litter — if it has sharp points or edges — can make life hazardous for barefoot waders. In addition, litter that decomposes draws heavily on the water's oxygen content, and the removal of this oxygen can harm game fish.

Pipes worse than cigarettes

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My question concerns my husband's pipe smoking. Is it anywhere near as harmful as cigarettes? He says he does not inhale the smoke, but rather just puffs on it. Also, what harm could the smoke have upon our two small children and myself, especially when driving in a closed car? I have some allergy problems already and do not smoke, yet the pipe smoke tends to make my nose feel blocked and very irritated. Please explain.

Dear Reader—It is generally said that pipe smoking is not as bad as cigarette smoking. However, there has not been a comparable study on a large population of pipe smokers as has been accomplished with cigarette smokers. There just aren't that many regular pipe smokers in the general population to make such a meaningful survey. It is generally agreed that inhaling tobacco smoke leads to a greater absorption of the amount of nicotine in the body and, hence, nicotine-type poisoning. This is probably true for other noxious elements in tobacco smoke.

Pipe smoking, because of its heat and the presence of tars, can irritate the lip and is responsible for sores on the lip and tongue which sometimes become lip or tongue cancer. Another problem with pipe smoking is the amount of carbon monoxide the smoke contains. In this regard, it's worse than cigarettes. Cigarette smoke contains about 1 per cent carbon monoxide; pipe smoke, 2 per cent; and cigar smoke, 6 per cent. In a closed area where a great deal of smoking is occurring, the carbon monoxide level can really build up to levels higher than those commonly permitted under health regulations in industrial situations. Carbon monoxide combines with the hemoglobin in the red blood cells and makes them ineffective in circulation. The cells affected cannot carry oxygen. The chronic smoker develops a chronic level of mild carbon monoxide toxicity and is able to tolerate this, whereas the nonsmoker has not developed this low-grade carbon monoxide poisoning.

There are other irritating chemical elements in tobacco smoke which are irritating to the respiratory tract and, in sensitive people, can aggravate allergies and asthma. On the whole, I would have to say that pipe smoking is less dangerous than cigarette smoking, but has very little, if anything, to recommend it from a health point of view.

Here is a warning for sauna bath enthusiasts. Dr. Peter Taggart reports in the British Medical Journal that during sauna bath exposure the electrocardiograms showed changes similar to those seen in heart disease. The Finnish doctors reported 67 deaths in 1970 from sauna baths.

The point that "heat loads" increase the work of the heart and circulation has long been known to heart specialists. This is why it is important to keep a patient with serious heart trouble in a comfortably cool room.

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — As January begins, a multitude of factors lend support to stock market prices and so, quite characteristically, Wall Street observers, forecasters and their tribe are optimistic.

First, of course, there is the expanding U.S. economy and the prospect that corporate profits will increase somewhere between 12 and 18 per cent. This offers probably the most substantial support of all.

The past year ended with such a surge of activity at both wholesale and retail levels that many of the negative forecasts of a slowdown by midyear have been shredded and recycled more positively.

Foreign investors are expected to support the market as the U.S. economy, relative to their own, becomes stronger. Europeans now are undergoing a siege of inflation, and so their money is migrating to safety in America.

The big institutions, mutual funds excepted, also seem to be in pretty sound shape, and institutions, such as pension funds, bank trusts and insurers are of steadily growing importance to stock prices.

One characteristic that buoy the hopes of other investors is that as long as the money comes in, through individual and corporate contributions to pensions, for example, it must be turned out.

The most popular medium for investing these funds is in the stock market, of course. And so, even when prospects aren't very bright, some institutions may be forced to buy stocks so as not to leave their cash idle.

The mutual funds are not so fortunate. In fact, their fate in the past year has been precisely opposite to that of other institutions. They are being bled of investment power by 10 straight months of net redemptions.

A net redemption occurs when money paid out for shares turned in exceeds money received. In November, the latest month for which figures are available, redemptions exceeded sales by $253.3 million.

Most funds can survive these cash-ins for many months, and the industry in its entirety can also because it now has assets of nearly $60 billion. But redemptions cramp styles. They deny a fund the freedom to take advantage of good investment opportunities.

Mutual funds, in fact, were net sellers of stocks during November, a result that no doubt can be related to the need to reimburse those fund holders who choose to redeem for cash.

But there are other factors brightening the outlook. Ordinary working Americans continue to build financial assets, despite inflation, and maybe they'll decide soon to return to the market. There is the prospect, anyway.

One of the big clouds in the forecast is Vietnam, although it has been a question for many months as to how much sustained impact an actual peace will have — or if much of the impact has already been discounted.

Three report on drug seminar

Paul Henley, Richard Rowe, and Willie Walker, three of the six local people who recently attended the Seminar on Drugs at the Regional Education Training and Resource Center at Miami, Florida, made a report to the Kiwanis Club at its Tuesday meeting.

Kiwanian Gordon Renshaw, ODA (Operation Drug Alert) Chairman of the Kiwanis Club arranged the program and introduced the speakers.

The two weeks stay for the intensive training as well as the transportation was financed by a grant from the Federal Office of Education. The center at Miami serves North and South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia, Arkansas and Florida. The seminar attended by the Hope group was the tenth in a continuing cycle of such meetings, which are confined to not more than sixty individuals in each cycle.

This particular seminar consisted of 52

individuals from five states, the Hope group being the only one from Arkansas.

The groups were housed in cottages with three bedrooms with six individuals assigned to a cottage. No two people from the same town were housed in the same cottage.

Classes were held each day from nine in the morning until five in the afternoon with a break for lunch, and then again in the evenings from seven to nine o'clock, the only break in the class work coming on Saturday and Sunday between the two weeks of classes, and even for the week-end there were planned activities for the participants.

Each speaker gave his impression of the two weeks and his evaluation of what the training can mean to our community.

In the near future, under the leadership of those attending the seminar an organization will be formed to implement a program for our community to attempt to prevent and combat Drug Abuse.

GOP leaders to discuss end to Congress system

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators today take up proposals to drop the seniority system in making committee assignments as well as choose party leaders for the 93rd Congress.

In advance of the closed-door party conference, there was no word of any opposition to the re-election of Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania as GOP floor leader and of Robert P. Griffin of Michigan as deputy leader, or party whip.

But there were contests for two other leadership posts left vacant by last November's elections in which Republicans lost two seats despite President Nixon's landslide re-election.

Sens. John Tower of Texas and Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio were vying for the chairmanship of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, while Sens. Wallace F. Bennett of Utah and Norris Cotton of New Hampshire sought the chairmanship of the Republican conference.

In the last Congress, Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado was chairman of the Policy Committee.

Armed man surrenders after hijack attempt

By PAUL CHUTKOW
Associated Press Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — A Roman Catholic cardinal, a veteran FBI agent and a psychiatrist talked an armed man into giving himself up after he commandeered an airliner in the year's first hijack attempt. No one was hurt, and the plane didn't get off the ground.

The suspect, identified as Charles A. Wenige, 37, of Baltimore, passively surrendered Tuesday night some three hours after he took two stewardesses hostage aboard a Piedmont Airlines plane and demanded to be flown to Toronto, Canada, authorities said.

Some two hours after the tense ordeal began, the gunman freed the stewardesses following on-board negotiations with FBI Agent Thomas H. Farrow and radio conversations with Lawrence Cardinal Shehan and Dr. John Lyon.

The agent reported that the gunman told him he greatly admired the cardinal. Dr. Lyon was familiar with Wenige, authorities said.

Farrow said Wenige talked of unspecified "personal problems" and drank alcoholic beverages while aboard the twin-engine turbojet. Wenige told authorities he had been released Tuesday from a Fairfax, Va., hospital. He said he was an Army veteran and had been wounded in Korea, the agent reported.

Farrow said Wenige would be arraigned today on federal charges of attempting to hijack an airplane and interfering with a flight crew.

According to Farrow, the casually dressed Wenige boarded the Atlanta-to-Baltimore multi-stop flight at Washington's National Airport, flew to Baltimore's Friendship Airport and then hid in the washroom until all the passengers left the plane.

Brandishing a .45-caliber revolver, he took two stewardesses hostage and ordered the rest of the crew off the plane, the agent reported.

Farrow said Wenige several times put the gun to the head of a stewardess and demanded to go to Toronto and then to talk with Dr. Lyon and Cardinal Shehan, the 74-year-old archbishop of Baltimore.

After convincing the gunman to allow him to take the place of stewardesses Terry Ann Meadows and Jackie Wisecup, Farrow boarded.

Finally, Wenige agreed to get off the plane with Farrow but refused to relinquish his weapon, according to the agent.

"I told him he shouldn't appear before the cardinal with an exposed weapon," Farrow related. The man then put the MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace will undergo a sixth operation as a result of wounds from a would-be assassin's bullet, but his press aide says the surgery is not serious or mandatory.

Billy Joe Camp said on Tuesday that the surgery "can be done any time." No date has been set.

One of Wallace's physicians, Dr. H. H. Hutchinson, said the surgery is related indirectly to Wallace's bullet wounds in that the "wound altered his bladder function."

The operation, one doctor said, was recommended because of an enlargement of the governor's prostate gland which could interfere with the flow of urine from his bladder.

Many men experience similar problems, the physician said, but it usually occurs when they are aged 60 or older. Wallace is 53.

Since he was shot at Laurel, Md., last May 15, Wallace has undergone surgery five times to control abdominal infections. His doctors say that problem has cleared.

Selection of jurors underway

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Selection of jurors in the Pentagon Papers trial of Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo begins today in what is technically the second trial for both defendants.

Last month a jury which was selected for the trial last summer was dismissed and U.S. District Court Judge Matt Byrne declared a mistrial. Ellsberg and Russo had agreed to waive their right to protection against double jeopardy in order to get a new jury.

The defense claimed the original jury was possibly prejudiced by exposure to news reports about the trial while it was in recess for four months during legal appeals.

Ellsberg, 41, and Russo, 35, former researchers on government projects, are charged with espionage, conspiracy and theft in connection with the leak to news media in 1971 of secret documents detailing origins of the Vietnam war.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., says extradition of a man believed to be in London, England, is not necessary.

Robin Cranston, 24, is charged on one count each of administering a dangerous, restricted drug and felonious assault. The incident involving Joyce Williams, 23, occurred last March 23.

Defense attorneys had sought to have David Marcus, 27, returned to Los Angeles for Cranston's trial Jan. 16, but Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older ruled Tuesday that his presence was not necessary.

Marcus is charged with five felony counts in the incident.

NEW YORK (AP) — Imogene Coca's doctor says it will be at least a week before he can determine the results of an operation to save the vision in her right eye.
